

Greetings to all from Temple Ohabei Shalom Sisterhood,

With the return of Spring and its beautiful palate of colors, we are all feeling ready to be inspired. What better way to get that inspiration than from the beautiful words of a poet?

Join us virtually this year on Sunday, May 21, at 3:00-4:00 pm for Sisterhood's annual "Meet the Creative Person" event.

We're being honored by the presence of Alan Feldman — returning to us by popular demand — the distinguished English professor and former department head at Framingham State University, who will grace us with his poetry enrapturing us as he reads his works aloud to our eagerly awaiting ears.

Professor Feldman has taught the advanced creative writing class at Harvard University's Radcliffe Seminars for 22 years. He's had an illustrious and prolific career publishing numerous first-place award winning poetry collections appearing in such noteworthy journals as The Atlantic Monthly and The New Yorker and included in The Best American Poetry anthology in 2001 and 2011. His latest book, entitled The Golden Coin, was published in 2018.

You're in for a real treat. So ensconce yourself in your favorite armchair and allow Alan Feldman to capture you for a most transformative journey. You'll be all the better for it.

L'Shalom,

The Temple Ohabei Shalom Sisterhood Leadership Board
